ORDER:

In the references read above, the Director of Animal Husbandry Department, A.P., Vijayawada among other things has stated that, Disease diagnosis is an essential part of Disease Management & prevention in Veterinary Practice which is vital to find out the root cause of the disease in order to render treatment aptly to the animals. Clinical Surveillance is usually based on the clinical symptoms manifested which should be followed by disease conformation in laboratory investigation. Disease diagnosis is highly technical in nature which requires a qualified Veterinarian intervention and One Lab Technician and one attendant to assist the Veterinarian in the technical work. He has therefore requested the Government to sanction (147) posts of Lab Technicians with DMLT qualification on contract basis with monthly remuneration of Rs.17,500/- per month and (147) Lab Attendants with monthly remuneration of Rs.15,000/- per month on outsourcing basis, in the proposed Constituency Level Animal Disease Diagnostic Laboratories in the State.

2. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby sanction the below mentioned manpower in the proposed constituency level Animal Disease Diagnostic Laboratories in the State.

(i) To engage the services of (147) Lab Technicians with DMLT qualification on contract basis with monthly remuneration of Rs.17,500/- per month.

(ii) To engage the services of (147) Lab Attendants with monthly remuneration of Rs.15,000/- per month on outsourcing basis.

3. The Director of Animal Husbandry Department, A.P., Vijayawada shall take necessary action in the matter accordingly.

(Contd., 2)

4. This order issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department, vide their U.O.No. FIN01-FMU0BES(AHDF)/25/2019, Computer No. 1039925 , Dt: 07.12.2020.
